THIS AGREEMENT, entered this 12th day of January, 2016 by and between the:

Erie County Gaming Revenue Authority, a body corporate and politic organized and existing under the provisions of the Pennsylvania Economic Development Financing Law, 73 P.S. §§ 371 et seq., with offices at 5340 Fryling Road, Suite 201, Erie, Pennsylvania 16510, hereinafter referred to as "ECGRA,"

AND

WHEREAS, ECGRA created the Ignite Erie funding stream to make both grants and mission-related investments to support the small-business financing, inner-city development and industry-university collaborations leading to the acceleration of technology products and services and the expansion of manufacturers and small business; and

WHEREAS, Bridgeway Capital was determined to be prequalified for a mission-related investment by the staff of ECGRA and a committee of the Board of Directors on September 3, 2015;

WHEREAS, following review of the proposal submitted by Bridgeway Capital, ECGRA has determined to loan One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00) to Bridgeway Capital to create the Erie Growth Fund for the purposes of providing micro-financing, growth loans, and community development loans for manufacturers, small businesses, and for-profit and not-for-profit developers; and

WHEREAS, as part of its Community Development Financial Institution ("CDFI") certification with the United States Treasury, and as a requirement of ECGRA, Bridgeway Capital will make available (or partner to make available) technical assistance to borrowers of its lending programs. In addition, Bridgeway Capital has committed to apply at least 60% of all its lending in "target markets" identified in its CDFI certification. Bridgeway Capital certifies that the funding ECGRA provides will be combined with Bridgeway Capital's existing assets and additional borrowed capital to multiply ECGRA's investment at a minimum of a dollar for dollar. The result will be the creation of a comprehensive economic and community development fund capable of meeting the County's needs to launch (1) entrepreneur loans, (2) growth loans, and (3) community development loans in economically disadvantaged areas—complemented by the offering of business, entrepreneurial and technical assistance services; and

WHEREAS, the Credit Agreement with Bridgeway Capital provides that ECGRA and Bridgeway Capital shall enter into this Agreement for Special Economic Development Assistance for Erie County for the purpose of describing the permitted use of funds loaned to Bridgeway Capital, identified as business loans in the Credit Agreement.

 - a. Funds received by Bridgeway Capital from ECGRA will provide targeted investment into the economic development gaps existing in Erie County and will be used to fund the following financial products/services, which shall, for the purpose of the Credit Agreement, be determined to be business loans:
 - Entrepreneur Loans: micro loans of $,000 or less for inventory, working capital, renovation, and/or small equipment;
 - Growth Loans: loans greater than $100,000 for existing businesses poised to expand and add employment. capacity to lend in disadvantaged communities, Bridgeway Capital often fills a financing gap in a project, jumpstarting further economic development and reinvestment by accepting a subordinate collateral position or by extending credit where conventional lenders will not.

- b. The lending of these funds will be paired with the business management and technical assistance that will be made available to borrowers through Bridgeway Capital's in-house support and technical assistance provider network. These assistance programs are designed to prepare entrepreneurs, start-up companies, non-profits, and other small businesses to effectively deal with the realities of running a business and handling its financing. The goal is to link professional business management and technical assistance with financing which will better prepare these entities for success.
